III- Public transport in Paris & its surrounding areas

A/ Area zones

Paris and its surrounding areas are divided into five transport zones numbered 1 to 5. Zones 1 and 2 include the 20 districts of Paris. Evry is in Zone 5. Transport passes and tickets are valid for specific zones. You’ll need to check this while buying passes.

B/ Navigo discovery pass

The Navigo discovery pass is a transport pass that can be bought for a month or a week. Tourists can usually benefit from the weekly discovery pass which is valid from Monday to Sunday and can be purchased on Friday for the following week.

The Navigo discovery pass is strictly personal and can’t be used by another person.

Caution! In case of lost, theft or damage of your navigo pass, this can’t be exchanged or reimbursed.
The Mobilis day ticket is a good plan for unlimited rides within public transport during operating hours for one day. It is available for various zones as indicated in the board below. The coupon is included in the fare price; you don’t need to pay any extra charges for this.
